
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH
CENTRAL DIVISION

ERIKA JACOBS,

Plaintiff,

v.

SALT LAKE CITY INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT,

Defendant.

ORDER TO ALLEGE PLAINTIFF'S DOMICILE

Case No. 2:24-cv-00299

District Judge Jill N. Parrish

Magistrate Judge Daphne A. Oberg

On August 21, 2024, the issued an order finding Plaintiff Erika Jacobs' original complaint deficient and permitting her to file an amended complaint.¹ This order noted the complaint failed to establish this court's jurisdiction over Ms. Jacobs' state-law claims because it did not allege facts supporting diversity jurisdiction.² Specifically, the complaint contained no allegations regarding Ms. Jacobs' domicile.³ The court instructed Ms. Jacobs that if she intended to proceed on her state-law claims in this court, she must allege which state she is domiciled in, if any.⁴

⁴ (Id.)

Ms. Jacobs filed an amended complaint on October 14, 2024,⁵ which confirms she is bringing a state-law claim and attempting to invoke diversity jurisdiction.⁶ However, the amended complaint lacks allegations regarding Mr. Jacobs' domicile.

By October 31, 2024, Ms. Jacobs is ORDERED to file a document alleging which state she is domiciled in (if any) for purposes of diversity jurisdiction. Ms. Jacobs is reminded that "a person acquires domicile in a state when the person resides there and intends to remain there indefinitely."⁷ Failure to comply may result in dismissal of this case.

DATED this 17th day of October, 2024.

BY THE COURT:

Daphne A. Oberg
United States Magistrate Judge

⁵ (Doc. No. 16.)

⁶ (See id. at 3 (stating her claim is "brought under diversity and trip and fall accident").)
